HAROLD KATZ
Owner

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Harold Katz hung up his basketball shoes after high school to run the family's grocery store when his father died. Even though he was no longer able to play basketball, his heart longed for the competitiveness and spirit of the game. After three years in the grocery business, Katz decided to branch out to enter other business endeavors. In 1972 he invested $20,000 in a weight loss program known as Nutri/System. He opened his first center in Willow Grove, a suburb of Philadelphia, and opened a second shortly afterward. After these centers showed impressive profits, Katz decided to move into franchising.

In 1977, he increased the company's sales even more when he had a succession of healthy, pre-packaged, pre-measured diet foods, sold exclusively to Nutri/System customers. He sold his interests in the diet firm in 1986 when it was the largest medically supervised weight control company in the world, with over 700 company-owned and franchised centers nationwide.

His first interest, however, remained in basketball and his life long pursuit of the sport grew continuously. He remained a loyal season ticket holder for many years with the 76ers, hoping one day to own Philadelphia's professional team. As his business life continued to prosper, his dream became a reality July 15, 1981 when he purchased the 76ers from Eugene Dixon. From that first day, Katz worked relentlessly at obtaining something that eluded the Sixers since 1967, a National Basketball Association championship. With his sharp business mind and basketball knowledge, Katz brought the NBA crown back to the city in 1983 and the team has had a marked success in profits the last four years.

Besides being sole owner of the 76ers, Katz is actively involved in numerous charitable and philanthropic affairs. He has assumed roles of leadership in B'nai B'rith, the March of Dimes, Jewish Y's, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and the Special Olympics. He also has headed fund raising drives for organizations such as the National Kidney Foundation and the Fellowship Commission of Philadelphia.

Born May 5, 1937, Katz resides in Huntingdon Valley, PA, with his wife, Peggy, and their children.

DAVID KATZ
VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

Katz accepted his new position of vice president and director of marketing in August 1989. Prior to this position, Katz was the director of marketing for the ball club. He began his career with the 76ers as the director of community relations in 1986-87, handling all player appearances and social function planning. Besides being involved with the 76ers, Katz is also president of Innovative Services, a company that supplies health care organizations with temporary nursing services. Katz, 25, is single and resides in Northampton Township, PA.

GENE SHUE
GENERAL MANAGER

Gene Shue became the fifth general manager in 76ers history when he was named July 24, 1990. As the fourth winningest coach in NBA history (784 wins, 861 losses) Shue knows what it takes to win. With 23 seasons as an NBA coach under his belt, he joins Bill Fitch, Don Nelson and Cotton Fitzsimmons as the only head coaches in NBA history to be named "Coach-of-the-Year," twice.

Shue started his professional coaching career with the then Baltimore Bullets in 1966-67. He transformed the Bullets from a team with the worst record in the league (20-61), to the best record (57-25) in only two seasons, and won his first NBA "Coach-of-the Year" award. Two seasons later he had the Bullets playing in the NBA championship.

In his six-year tenure with Baltimore, he won four division titles and made five playoff appearances. He left following the 1972-73 season and took the challenge of turning around the Philadelphia 76ers, who in the season prior to his arrival, had a 9-73 record, the worst in the history of the league.

His record of success continued with Philadelphia, where in four seasons he led the 76ers to a 50-win season, and a trip to the NBA championship finals in 1976-77. He was replaced as the 76ers coach after six games of his fifth season with Philadelphia by Billy Cunningham. He posted a 157-177 mark with Philadelphia.

After departing Philadelphia, Shue was named coach of the San Diego Clippers. There he guided a team that was 27-55 the season before as the Buffalo Braves, to a 43-39 record.

Following the 1979-80 season he left San Diego to return to the Washington Bullets. In his second season with Washington, Shue coached the team to a 43-39 record and won "Coach-of-the-Year" honors a second time. He remained with the Bullets for five seasons, leading them to a 232-248 record.

Shue first broke into the league when he was drafted in the first round (3rd selection overall) by the Philadelphia Warriors out of the University of Maryland. He was twice named to the NBA's All-Pro team, and was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game five times. In his 10-year playing career, he averaged 14.4 points per game.

Born December 18, 1931, Shue and his wife, Sandy, live in the Philadelphia area.

BOB WEINHAUER
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Weinhauer was promoted to assistant general manager July 24, 1990. With his new duties, Weinhauer will be aiding general manager Gene Shue in all facets of basketball operations including negotiating contracts and signing new players.

Prior to his new position, Weinhauer was the team's player personnel director/assistant coach since joining the ball club June 14, 1988. As the player personnel director/assistant coach, he was responsible for the day to day duties of professional scouting for game preparation, as well as college and professional scouting. He also scouted for talent internationally, as well as those foreign teams competing in the United States.

Weinhauer brings a wealth of basketball knowledge to the club. As a successful collegiate coach at the University of Pennsylvania and Arizona State University, he posted a 143-90 mark (.588) in eight seasons. A highlight of his career included guiding the Pennsylvania Quakers to the 1979 Final Four, the last such appearance by an Ivy League squad. His teams qualified for post-season play six out of eight seasons, including five consecutive years while at Penn (4 NCAA, 1 NIT).

He also guided the Detroit Spirit to the CBA Playoffs in 1985-86. During the 1986-87 season he served as color commentator on the 76ers' Basketball Radio Network. Most recently he served as a scout for several teams including the 76ers, Clippers, and Bullets. He has also coached in the Los Angeles Summer Professional League. Weinhauer has five children and he resides in Cinnaminson, NJ.

GERRY RYAN
BUSINESS MANAGER

Ryan was named as the 76ers' business manager on July 31, 1987. Ryan is responsible for the day-to-day business activities of the ball club, including the front office and staff, marketing, promotions, and public relations. He joined the 76ers' staff in 1980 as ticket manager, a position that he held until his promotion to business manager. Prior to joining the 76ers Ryan was employed by the Spectrum for five years. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's University, where he majored in business management. Born May 3, 1953, Ryan and his wife, Jane, reside with their four children in Havertown, PA.

JIM LYNAM
HEAD COACH

Lynam begins his third season as the Sixers head coach. Last season he silenced the preseason critics by winning the Atlantic Division with a 53-29 record and was runnerup in Coach-of-the-Year balloting. It was the Sixers first division title since winning the NBA championship in 1983. The 76ers rewarded Lynam by giving him a two year contract extension September 25, 1990.

Lynam became the Philadelphia 76ers ninth head coach on February 8, 1988 (13th in the history of the franchise) when he replaced Matt Guokas. He managed to guide the 1987-88 injury plagued club to a 16-23 mark for the remainder of the campaign.

Lynam joined the 76ers organization on June 17, 1985 when he was named assistant coach, filling the spot vacated when Matt Guokas was elevated to the head coaching position. He went on to become Guokas' senior aide and right hand man. He also directed the 76ers' Princeton Summer League squads in 1985 and 1986. Lynam joined the 76ers with four years of professional coaching experience. He served as an assistant for his former mentor, Jack Ramsay, in Portland in 1981-82, and then head coach of the San Diego/Los Angeles Clippers from 1983 to 1985. In his first season with the Clippers he posted a mark of 30-52, and was replaced the following season, 61 games into that season with a 22-39 record.

His college head coaching career covered 10 seasons (158-118 record with a .572 winning percentage). His career included two seasons at Fairfield University (23-29), five seasons at American University (70-61), and three at St. Joseph's University (65-28). Lynam's .699 winning percentage at St. Joseph's is the second best in school history, behind only Jack Ramsay. During his stint with the Hawks, they made two NIT appearances and were Mid-East runner-up in the 1981 NCAA Basketball Tournament, following a shocking last second upset of top ranked DePaul.

Lynam played three seasons at St. Joseph's under Ramsay and averaged 12.2 points per game. A member of the St. Joseph's and Philadelphia Big Five Hall of Fames, Lynam was born September 15, 1941 and currently resides in Media with his wife, Kay, and their children.

FRED CARTER ASSISTANT COACH

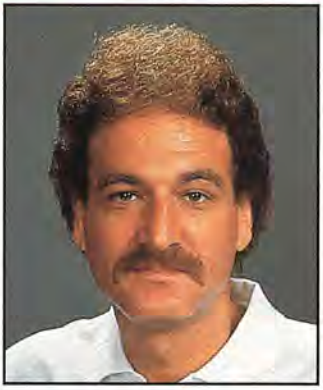
Carter starts his fourth season as a 76ers assistant coach. He joined the 76ers as an assistant coach under Matt Guokas June 1, 1987, returning to the team where he played for six seasons (409 games, 7,673 points, 1,826 rebounds, and 1,720 assists) from 1971-1977. Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Carter served as an assistant to Kevin Loughery in Washington with the Bullets and also served as an assistant with Loughery in Chicago and Atlanta.

He originally was a third round draft pick of the then Baltimore Bullets where he played two and a half seasons before being traded along with Loughery to the 76ers in 1971. Carter played eight seasons in the NBA, scoring 9,271 points for a 15.2 points per game average, including three seasons when he averaged over 20 points per game. He ended his playing career with Milwaukee.

Carter captained three 76ers' squads, including the 9-73 club of 1972-73. He was tagged with the moniker "Mad Dog" by teammate Ray Scott following a defensive drill when Scott said, "That guy is madder than a dog."

A 1971 graduate of St. Mary's College, Carter coached the women's squad at the Mount before entering the professional coaching ranks. Born February 14, 1945, Carter and his wife, Jacqueline, reside with their six children in Blue Bell, PA.

BUZZ BRAMAN SHOOTING INSTRUCTOR



Braman joined the 76ers as a shooting instructor September 8, 1989. Prior to joining the team, he worked with the Detroit Pistons, Orlando Magic, Cleveland Cavaliers and the LA Lakers. Braman began his own instructional career in 1987 when he created `Sure Shot,' a program based in Coral Springs, FL, designed to help individuals improve their shooting skills.

He worked as a shooting coach at the University of Maryland later that year. He joined the Terps midway through the 1987-88 season when the team was shooting 61 percent from the free throw line and by season's end, had improved the team's percentage to 73 percent.

Braman can lay claim to being one of the deadliest shooters of the game. Once, he made 738 consecutive free throws and also made 246 of 250 shots from college three-point distance. His shooting has been featured on WTBS-TV in February 1989. Braman was an All-American guard at Springbrook HS in Silver Spring, MD, before starring at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC. He and his wife, Jamie, have two sons and reside in Voorhees, NJ.

TONY HARRIS TRAINER

Harris was named as the trainer September 19, 1989. He began his mark in the professional ranks when he was named assistant trainer for the Seattle Mariners Spring training camp in 1980-82. He joined the NBA's Phoenix Suns rookie camp, where he was an assistant trainer under Joe Proski in 1981. That same season he was the head trainer at the John MacLeod Summer Basketball Camp. Harris was a part-time assistant trainer for the Indianapolis Colts in 1984-86 and has most recently been the physical therapist and athletic trainer to the Fort Wayne Flames Soccer Club and to the Fort Wayne Komets Hockey Club in 1988-89.

First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the same deadline via mail or fax at (215) 339-7632. Press and photographic credentials are issued to fully accredited members of the media and permit the bearer access to the working press areas, locker room, and press lounge. The media room and press row at courtside are limited to working media members only with a valid 76ers credential. We cannot accommodate family, friends or guests. Any abuse of press credentials will cause forfeiture of the credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo work space is extremely limited and your cooperation is requested in adhering to the 76ers guidelines. Still and television photographers are limited in floor access, in front of the press tables at both ends of the court. Court ends opposite the press tables are not photo areas. There are also photo areas reserved in the upper press box and throughout the building. Contact the public relations office for more information regarding these areas. Every photographer must have a photo pass to gain court access. Photographers possessing season passes should pick up a game photo pass in the press room. Photographers requesting passes on a daily basis will have the photo pass left at the press will call window.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with the NBA policy, the 76ers locker room will be open to the media 45 minutes prior to the start of the game, and 10 minutes after the game has been completed. Only persons possessing a media credential will be admitted to the locker room.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Game notes will be available in the press room of the Spectrum one hour prior to tip-off. We will make every attempt to get visiting media members their notes earlier in the day at their hotel. If you are not staying with the team, please give your hotel location to the public relations office to allow prompt routing of notes. Play-by-play, halftime and final boxes will be distributed to all media members.

FAX AND TELEPHONE SERVICE: The 76ers have a limited number of telephones available to working press members. There is one telephone at each press table on the court. The 76ers provide complimentary fax service for all working media members. Final boxscores are dispersed immediately following the game. 610 WIP Play-By-Play Announcer

Having joined the Sixers five seasons ago as the radio voice of the team, Gurevitch quickly became a fan favorite because of his lightning quick delivery and genuine enthusiasm for basketball. His experience includes being morning sportscaster on WCTC in New Brunswick from 1980 to 1985. In addition, Gurevitch did play-by-play for three seasons calling the broadcasts of Rutgers football and basketball. He also did play-by-play for football and basketball at Syracuse University where he was a 1980 graduate.

NEIL FUNK

WPHL TV-17 Play-By-Play

Neil Funk begins his fourth season doing play-by-play for 76er road games on WPHL. Funk first came to Philadelphia in 1976-77 for one season when he broadcast 76ers basketball on WIBG radio. The following season, he ventured west to broadcast for the Kansas City Kings. He returned to Philadelphia in 1982 where he broadcast the Sixers games on WPHL TV-17 and WFIL radio until 1985. The following two seasons he did play-by-play for the New Jersey Nets on WNBC and WNEW before returning to Philadelphia in 1987. Funk began his career in 1971 broadcasting Illinois University basketball and football on WITY radio and also found time to call the Danville Warrior games (Milwaukee Brewer farm club) on the same station.

STEVE MIX

WPHL TV-17 Color Commentary

Steve Mix begins his third full season analyzing all away games on WPHL TV-17. Mix brings intriguing insights to the game of basketball because of his past experience playing in the pro ranks. Previous experience in broadcasting includes brief stints doing color for the University of Toledo basketball games on WSPD TV-13 and the Detroit Pistons on WKBD TV-50. Mix is familiar to 76er fans, as well he should be. He played with the 76ers for nine seasons starting in 1973-74 and has his name etched in many different team records.

JIM BARNIAK

PRISM Cable Play-By-Play

Jim Barniak starts his 12th season calling the shots for all 76er home games on PRISM. In fact, he has been with PRISM since its inception in 1976, working in a part-time capacity the first two years. In 1978, Barniak was named the cable network's sports director and the following season started his current reign as play-by-play announcer. In his tenure at PRISM, Barniak's broadcast partners have included Fred Carter, Doug Collins, Andy Musser, Chuck Daly, Gene Shue, Hubie Brown and Matt Guokas. Noted as a talented sportswriter, Barniak had worked earlier in his career as a sports columnist for the Philadelphia Bulletin from 1969-78.

JACK RAMSAY

PRISM Cable Color Commentary

Dr. Jack Ramsay returns for his second season as PRISM's analyst for all home games. The NBA's second all-time winningest coach, Ramsay has been around the pro circuit long enough to know just about everyone who ever played in the NBA. His past ties with the 76ers include stints as the team's general manager and as head coach (1968-72). Other NBA teams that Ramsay has piloted include the Buffalo Braves, Portland Trail Blazers and most recently the Indiana Pacers. His talents are not limited to coaching by any means. In his spare time, he is also an author, a teacher and a top notch triathlete.

Neil Hartman continues his second season hosting WPHL's "At the Half" show. Hartman's energetic voice and spirit add excitement to all 76ers road games.

Marc Zumoff continues to anchor the halftime report, as well as the post-game star of the game interviews for all home games on PRISM.

75 MILLIONAIRES LAST SEASON

There were 75 players in the NBA last season with salaries better than one million dollars. Golden State and Portland led with five each and six other teams had four. Orlando was the only club without any but five other teams only had one each.

BARRY OWNS A NOVEL TRIPLE

Rick Barry, current play by play announcer for TNT, holds the unusual distinction of being the only player to capture scoring titles in the NBA (with San Francisco in 1966-67), ABA (with Oakland in 1968-69), and the NCAA (with the University of Miami in 1964-65).

BARKLEY AGAIN LEAGUE'S BEST 2 PT. FG SHOOTER 1989-90

Many folks like Pat Riley claim the NBA's field goal percentage is misleading because it combines 2 and 3 pt. attempts. So we took the 80 players who attempted 50 or more 3 pt. field goals and subtracted these attempts from their overall totals to produce their 2 point field goal average. No. 1 for the fifth straight year was Charles Barkley with a 63.2 average, the leader by 5.9 points over Chris Mullin (57.3), Kevin McHale (56.2), Reggie Miller (55.2), and Jeff Hornacek (55.2). The worst of the group was Sedric Toney (34.2) followed by Dana Barros and Scott Ruth (38.3). All but three players had a better average minus the 3 pointers. The exceptions were Craig Hodges whose average dropped 5.1 (43.8 to 38.7), Jon Sundvold 1.3 (40.8 to 39.5) and Toney 0.6 (34.8 to 34.2) minus the 3 pointers. The biggest increase for the second straight year was achieved by Brad Davis, going from 49.0 overall to 55.2 for just 2 points. Other big increases were by Rod Higgins 48.1 to 54.0 and Rich Anderson 41.7 to 45.9.

SIXER'S LEADS AND DEFICITS 1989-90

An analysis of the 76ers log last year shows that there were three games last season when the Sixers never had a lead (2/24 at Phoenix, 4/6 at New York and 4/22 vs Boston). Conversely there were five games in which foes never had a lead (11/8 vs Miami, 11/25 at Indiana, 12/13 vs Atlanta, 4/3 vs Houston and 4/14 at Charlotte). The biggest Sixers lead of the season was 37 pts. (130-93) in the 4th period vs. Phoenix 4/1. They also had a 35 point lead vs Minnesota (110-75) in 4th period 4/12; had six other 30-point plus leads and leads in the twenties on 17 other occasions. Conversely the Sixers worst deficit was 32 pts. (99-67) in the 4th period of 2/24 game at Phoenix. They also had 7 other games in which they had disadvantages in the 20-point realm.

POSITION BREAKDOWN OF 1989-90 PLAYERS

There were 387 players in the NBA last season and by position they broke down to 148 guards, 137 forwards, and 56 centers. There also were 26 forward-centers, 15 guard-forwards, 3 center-forwards, and 2 forward-guards.

DOUBLE FIGURE SCORING

Six players were able to score double figures in every game they played during the 1989-1990 season, led by Michael Jordan of Chicago, Akeem Olajuwon of Houston, Reggie Miller of Indiana, Tony Campbell of Minnesota and Patrick Ewing of New York who all were 82 of 82. Michael Jordan extended his streak of scoring double figures to 337 games. Michael has scored double figures every game over the last four seasons, plus the final 10 games of the 1985-1986 season, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. That is the longest current streak. Kevin McHale had his streak halted at 247 games. Patrick Ewing owns the second longest streak at 127 games. Both Michael and Patrick have a long way to go to get to Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record 787 straight games.

LOWS SINCE 24-SECOND CLOCK

Since the 24-second clock was introduced into the NBA in 1954-55 season, the lowest scoring regular season game was a 62-57 victory by Boston over Milwaukee on February 27, 1955 at Providence. In this game the floor was atop ice and the moisture came through the boards to make running hazardous. The total of 119 is the low and so are the 57 points by Milwaukee (now the Atlanta Hawks). The lowest scoring playoff game found Ft. Wayne beating Syracuse, 74-71, April 7, 1955 at Indianapolis. The total of 145 points and the 71 by Syracuse are the lows. Buffalo scored 63 vs. Milwaukee Oct. 21, 1972 and Chicago 65 at Phoenix, Mar. 6, 1975; Cleveland 67, Nov. 19, 1977, Dallas 68, Feb. 4, 1981, Phoenix 68, Mar. 8, 1981, New Jersey 68 at Utah, Nov. 27, 1989, and Indiana 64 at New York, December 10, 1985. The 55 FGA by the 76ers vs. Atlanta on 4/1/88 were lowest since 24-second clock was instituted.

SHUE NBA'S ALLTIME LEADER IN GAMES PLAYED OR COACHED

Gene Shue is in a class by himself when it comes to participation in NBA games since the league's inception in 1946-47. Gene has taken part in 2,460 games broken down this way. He played in 736 games in 10 years (699 regular season, 32 playoffs and 5 All-Star) and coached 22 years in 1724 games (1645 regular season, 77 playoff, and 2 All-Stars). Of course the No. 1 player is Kareem Abdul Jabbar but his alltime total including 1560 regular season, 237 playoffs and 18 All-Stars is just 1815, 645 behind Shue. Coaches like Dick Motta and Jack Ramsay have many coaching games but never played in the league.

HISTORY OF NBA POINT DIFFERENTIAL

The chart below shows the history of the point differential for all 26,252 regular season games played in the NBA since its origin in the 1946-47 season. It shows the number of times each point difference (margin of victory) occurred and also what percentage of all games played, ended with that difference, as researched by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows that at least one game ended in a difference from 1 through 56 and also that a two point difference has occurred the most times (1887). There have been 18 games with point differences in the 50's and 60's including the March 19, 1972 game in which the LA Lakers beat Golden State 162-99 for the largest margin of victory (63 points) in NBA history. More than one of every four games are decided by four points or less and nearly 53.5 percent of all games end with a margin of nine points or less.

ONLY 4 CURRENT COACHES WON COACH OF YEAR LAURELS

Of the current 27 coaches, only four have won NBA Coach of the Year laurels. Don Nelson in 1982-83 and 1984-85; Dick Motta in 1970-71; Cotton Fitzsimmons in 1978-79 and 1988-89 and Bill Fitch in 1975-76 and 1979-80 comprise the quartet. None of them won the NBA titles the year they were selected. The only 3 coaches to win Coach of the Year the same year they won the NBA title were Bill Sharman, Lakers, 1971-72; Red Holzman, New York, 1969-70 and Red Auerbach, Boston, 1964-65.

HISTORY OF THE 76ers

Professional basketball in its modern phase has had two stages in this city. The first section comprised the career of the Warriors between 1946 and 1962 and saw two titles come here — 1947 when the immortal Joe Fulks hit his heights and 1956 in Tom Gola's rookie season.

The Warriors were transferred to San Francisco after the 1961-62 campaign. Irv Kosloff and the late Ike Richman, however, teamed to purchase the Syracuse Nats in the spring of 1963 and bring the franchise here. The team was renamed 76ers and Dolph Schayes was named coach for the 1963-64 season.

Dolph piloted the team for three seasons and in his final year he steered the 76ers to the Eastern Division title aided by the addition of Wilt Chamberlain who came in January 1965 in a deal with San Francisco. Alex Hannum became the coach in 1966-67 and led the team to a 68-13 record and the NBA title.

Hannum steered the team to its third straight Eastern Division title in 1967-68, and then the Jack Ramsay regime began. Ramsay had been the club's GM during Hannum's two years as coach and when Hannum left after the 1967-68 season, Jack assumed the coaching duties — along with his GM chores. He didn't have Chamberlain who was traded to Los Angeles, but still managed to finish second in the division that year.

Ramsay relinquished the GM role to Don DeJardin just before the start of the 1970-71 season and confined his efforts to coaching for two seasons. For 1972-73 Roy Rubin succeeded Ramsay until the All-Star game break when Kevin Loughery supplanted him. Gene Shue was named coach on June 15, 1973 and started the club's resurgence in the 1973-74 campaign. Pat Williams became the club's GM in August 1974. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr. purchased the club from Kosloff in May 1976. Julius Erving was secured on October 21, 1976 and the team won the Atlantic Division title and lost in the NBA finals.

On November 4, 1977, Billy Cunningham replaced Shue as coach and led team to Atlantic Division title and to the Eastern Conference finals. In 1979-80 and 1981-82 Billy piloted the team to the NBA finals and in 1982-83 to the NBA championship. Lou Scheinfeld was appointed president of the club on January 30, 1980, and relinquished duties on June 1, 1981. Harold Katz purchased the club July 9, 1981, the sale was approved on Sept. 21 by the NBA and became final on Sept. 24, 1981. Matt Guokas replaced Cunningham as coach on June 14, 1985. John Nash replaced Pat Williams as GM on June 25, 1986. Jim Lynam replaced Guokas as coach Feb. 8, 1988. Gene Shue replaced John Nash as GM on July 24, 1990.

LENGTH OF 76ers GAMES 1989-90

The average 76ers home game in 1989-90 took two hours and 4.4 minutes from the opening tapoff to the final buzzer. The first periods averaged 22.6 minutes, the second 25.2, the third 25.6 and the fourth 29.8. The quarters add up to 1 hour 3.2 minutes. The remainder of the minutes cover halftime (15.9), between periods (4.7), and overtime. The longest home game vs. the Los Angeles Lakers (3/14) took 2:29 and the shortest vs. Charlotte (11/5) and vs. Orlando (1/24) each lasted 1:52. The longest quarter (4th) lasted 48 minutes vs. the Lakers (3/14). The shortest quarter of 19 minutes (1st) occurred vs. Detroit (12/8). Home games in 1989-90 lasted 5,102 minutes, 120 minutes less than 1988-89. The 41 road games lasted 5,236 minutes or an average of 2 hours 7.7 minutes per game. The longest game at Detroit (3/2) lasted 2:48 in one overtime.

Here is the first complete recap ever made of the NBA duels between Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell between the 1959-60 and 1968-69 campaigns. The stats show their records when Wilt was with the Philadelphia and San Francisco Warriors, the 76ers, and the Los Angeles Lakers and Russell with Boston. The results show Wilt far ahead in scoring and rebounding.

		Games	Pts.	Rebounds
OVERALL TOTALS	CHAMBERLAIN	145	4229	4112
	RUSSELL	144	2098	3420

GAMES vs. EACH OTHER	Games	Pts.	Avg.	Reb.	Reb. Avg.
Chamberlain	142	4077	28.7	4072	28.7
Russell	142	2060	14.5	3373	23.7

Wilt scored 62 at Boston Jan. 14, 1962 and had six other games in the 50's. Russell had 37 vs Wilt Mar. 5, 1961 and had two other games in the 30's. Wilt had 55 rebounds vs Russell on Nov. 24, 1960 and had six other games in the 40's. Russell's high rebounds were 40 on Feb. 12, 1961 and he had 23 games in the 30's.

A recap of the series shows Boston leading the Phila. Warriors 32-19, San Francisco 21-6, and tied with the 76ers, 28-28. The Celtics trailed the LA Lakers, 7-6.

BLACKMAN CURRENT LEADER WITH NO FOULOUTS

Rolando Blackman has played 710 games and has never fouled out for the leadership of all active NBA players who never have fouled out of a game. Other streaks are Jerry Sichting 598, Randy Wittman 478, Steve Colter 450, Danny Young 365, John Battle 337, Michael Adams 319, Dell Curry 261, and Sidney Lowe 193. However both Colter and Blackman fouled out of a playoff game. Moses Malone has the longest current streak (1043 games) of no foulouts having 960 consecutive games in the regular season, 72 playoff games and 11 all-star games since he last fouled out on January 6, 1978. Of course the league record is held by Wilt Chamberlain who played 1045 regular season games, 160 playoff games and 19 all-star games (a total of 1224) without a foulout.

TITLE ROUND FAILURES IN FOLLOWING SEASONS

Five NBA teams failed to make the playoffs the year after they were in the championship finals. The 1968-69 Boston team was the only one to win the title and then fail to make the playoffs the following year. The others were St. Louis 1960-61, failing in 1961-62; San Francisco 1963-64, failing in 1964-65 after selling Wilt Chamnberlain to the 76ers, Milwaukee 1973-74, failing in 1974-75; and Phoenix 1975-76, failing in 1976-77.

CHEEKS REGAINS CLEAN HANDS AWARD

Only three full time starters in 1989-90 qualified for the Clean Hands Award, meaning a player was credited with more steals than personal fouls. The leader with 124 steals and 78 personals was Maurice Cheeks, who regained the title he had won for 3 straight years before being dethroned in 1988-89 by Lester Conner. Next were Mark Price 114-89 and Terry Porter 151-150. Subs who did it were Michael Jackson 5-3 and Andre Turner 8-6.

ROBINSON BEST AT TURNING TEAM AROUND

Since the territorial draft was abolished, the No. 1 draft choices have had varying success in turning teams around. The best was Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul Jabbar) when Milwaukee had a 27-55 record in 1968-69 and then went to 56-26 in Alcindor's first year for a rise of 29. Next best was Elvin Hayes with plus 22. However, David Robinson was the No. 1 choice in 1987, didn't play until 1989-90 and San Antonio went from 21-61 to 56-26, a 35 game turnaround for the best boost. Mychal Thompson has the dubious distinction of being the No. 1 pick to have his team post a worse record, Portland going from 58-24 to 45-37 in his rookie campaign. Pervis Ellison was the No. 1 pick last year and Sacramento dropped from 27-55 to 23-59. The only one to win an NBA title was Magic Johnson with a plus 13 in the 1979-80 season.

NBA PLAYOFF WINNING MARGINS — 1946-47 THRU 1989-90

There have been 1741 playoff games played since the league's origin in the 1946-47 season. The total point difference of those 1741 games between winner score and loser score adds up to 17,877 points. That is an average of 10.27 points per game according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows the number of times each point difference has occurred in playoff history. As in regular season games, a two point difference has occurred the most times (131). These totals include 10 special playoff games which were played to break ties in regular season final standings and, thus, determine playoff opponents. Three playoff games have concluded with a margin of 50 or more points, including the March 19, 1956 game in which the Minneapolis Lakers beat the St. Louis Hawks 133-75 for the largest victory margin (58 points) in NBA playoff history.

DOMINANCE INDEX RATINGS

Many years ago Sports Illustrated Magazine devised a Novel Dominance Index with the idea of showing via points how much a team dominated a season. To secure the figure for each team, the championship team's average margin of victory is divided by the margin of victory of the second best team. In some cases, the team with the best win and loss record didn't have the best margin of victory. All this deals with the regular season action and, naturally, there are many cases where the team with the best regular season record failed to win the playoffs. The best team according to this system is the 1955-56 Warriors which had a 4.3 victory margin against an 0.7 differential for next best Boston. The best margin of victory was 12.3 for Los Angeles in 1971-72.

LENGTH OF NBA'S 1989-90 GAMES

This chart shows how long it took to play the league's 1107 games in the 1989-90 season. For each team it shows the total minutes of its games, home, away and overall; the length of a game broken down into hours (1:55.9 means 1 hr. 55.9 mins.) and the fastest and slowest game each team played. The chart shows Charlotte had the fastest games on its home court (2:01.6), and Sacramento the fastest away (2:00.0) and overall (2:01.8). Orlando was the slowest team at home (2:12.3), and Portland away (2:12.8) and overall (2:11.0). A five overtime game (Seattle at Milwaukee) was the longest game (4:17), while the fastest game of 1:42 was Denver at Cleveland. For the trivia fans adding all the 1107 games together would give you a total of 2342 hours and 36 minutes. The league average was 2:07.0 compared to 2:09.2 in 1988-89, 2:07.4 in 1987-88, 2:08.1 in 1986-87 and 2:07.2 in 1985-86.

ALL-TIME ANALYSIS OF NBA PLAYERS

Since the NBA began operations in the 1946-47 season, there have been 2249 different players who have appeared in at least one league game. Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan has done a thorough analysis of their careers, which turns up some interesting facts. The 2249 players have played a total of 8780 seasons which averages 3.90 years per player. They have played a total of 517,921 games, which averages 230.29 games per career. A total of 5,571,321 points have been scored in NBA history which averages 2477.24 points per career. Thus, the average NBA career spans 3 9/10 seasons, 230 games and 2477 points. 381 players performed in at least one regular season NBA game during the 1989-90 season, including 81 rookies playing their first season in the league.

A WILT RECORD THAT STILL STANDS

Everyone is familiar with the league record 100 points that Wilt Chamberlain scored in 1962 versus the Knicks, but it is not as widely known that he also holds the league record for assists (21) by a center. He achieved this figure Feb. 2, 1968 vs. Detroit. Maurice Cheeks equalled that figure to tie Wilt for the club mark on Oct. 30, 1982 vs. the Nets, but of course Cheeks is a guard.

ARCHIBALD'S UNIQUE FEAT

Nate (Tiny) Archibald is the only NBA player ever to lead the league in scoring and assists in the same season, averaging 33.9 points and 11.4 assists in 1972-73.

SAN ANTONIO BEST IN CLOSE GAMES

The San Antonio Spurs had the best percentage in 1989-90 games 3-points or under final spreads posting a 10-3 (76.9%) mark followed by Cleveland 9-3 (75.0%). The Spurs also had the most wins and Milwaukee played the most games (17). Washington had the worst record (4-12) followed by Houston (3-8). Phoenix was the leader in games decided by 10 points or more with a 38-7 record. Orlando was the worst at 4-38, while Utah engaged in the most games (50) in the category.

ASSISTS ANALYSIS 1989-90

Winning games in the NBA usually requires good shots and the ability to get the ball to the right player, in the right place, and at the right time. This usually results in a good shot. Recording more assists in a game than the other team results in a win more than 7 out of every 10 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, show that the team with more assists won 750 times and lost only 307 times for a percentage of .710. There were 50 games in which both teams recorded an equal number of assists. Dallas, Portland and Golden State compiled the best record in this department of play and were all at or above 90%, while Miami, New Jersey and Charlotte had the most trouble. Winning games while recording fewer assists was difficult. Only the LA Lakers, Portland and the 76ers could win over half of those games. Charlotte, Minnesota, and Sacramento had the most trouble winning with fewer assists. Complete figures follow:

REBOUNDING ANALYSIS 1989-90

Rebounding is one of the key elements of basketball in the NBA where the winning team out-rebounds the loser nearly 2 out of every 3 games. The team with more rebounds won 701 times and lost 366 times for a percentage of .657, according to records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. There were 40 games in which both teams had an equal number of rebounds. The best percentages belonged to the LA Lakers, Denver and Chicago. Orlando, Miami, and New Jersey had the most trouble winning games when securing more rebounds. Winning games while being out-rebounded is a difficult task, but eight teams, led by the LA Lakers, were able to win over half of those games. Again, having the most trouble winning when out rebounded was Orlando, New Jersey and Miami. Complete records follow:

SUNDRY RECORDS

Pat Riley, K.C. Jones and Bill Russell are the only three individuals who have played in the NCAA's championship game and also coached an NBA champion. Russell and Jones played together for San Francisco U and coached the Boston Celtics to the NBA title. Riley played at Kentucky and, of course, coached the Los Angeles Lakers.

KILLILEA LEADS ASSISTANTS IN SERVICE

An analysis of the longevity rates of assistant coaches from 1972-73 to 1989-90 shows in that 18 year period there have been 617 assistant coaching jobs occupied by 196 different individuals for an average career of 3.2 seasons. The 1972-73 season was the first in which assistant coaches totals reached double figures for the league (14). The previous year there were only 8 as the pre-1970 trend either was no assistant coach or at most one. Nowadays some teams have as many as three. The leader for this period is John Killilea with 16 years followed by Jim Rodgers and the late Jack McMahon each with 15 years. Other high totals are Bill Bertka and Frank Hamblen 13 each, and Bernie Bickerstaff and Al Bianchi 12 each.

OLAJUWON TOPS PLAYER PRODUCTION RATINGS

One of the systems utilized in the NBA to determine a player's worth gives credits and minuses to players in 11 different categories. A player gets 20 points for a field goal, defensive rebound or an assist; 15 points for an offensive rebound, steal or blocked shot, and 10 points for a 3-point field goal or a free throw made. On the other hand he gets minus 20 for a turnover, and minus 10 for either a free throw missed or a field goal missed. You can add the points for each player in the 1989-90 season and rate them three ways — total points, points per game, and points per 1 minute played (minimum 200 minutes). Below are the top 10 in each category and bottom 10 in minutes played.

NBA WINNING MARGINS — 1989-90

The average margin of victory went down significantly during the 1989-90 season after an increase last season. The margin declined to 11.23 points, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The decline was from a high of 11.83 last season. For all 1107 regular season games, the total margin of victory added up to 12,432 points. The largest margin of victory was a 48 point game. 27% of all games had a difference of 5 points or less, and 50% had a difference of 9 points or less. There were 41 games with a margin of 30 or more points, down from 47 last year, in a new season containing 82 more games. The average margin of victory has gone up 7 out of 10 times in seasons when new expansion teams were added, including last season. It is impressive that the average went down more than half a point with 4 new teams in the NBA. This may indicate that the new teams, though losing quite often, are competitive much of the time.

STOCKTON NO. 1 IN POINT PRODUCTION 1989-90

Someone suggested that the MVP is the one who is responsible for the most points in a game. A player would get 2 points for each assist. Then add all the points he scored to the points for assists and divide the total by the number of games he played to get his average points produced a game. Under this system John Stockton was the winner, unseating Michael Jordan who won two previous years. Magic Johnson was tops in 1985-86 and 1986-87.

WINNING WAYS — 1989-90

As has been the case in previous years, it is most important to get a good start in an NBA game and also have a strong finish. The team which leads at the end of the first quarter won almost 70% of the time, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart below shows which teams were best and which were not, at winning after leading at the end of one period. Detroit, the LA Lakers and Portland were best at winning games which they were trailing at the end of the first quarter. Winning the fourth quarter produced a victory almost 65% of the time. The chart below shows those results. The percentage could have been higher but on some occasions the winner had a solid lead entering the final quarter and turned the game over to its bench to finish. That point is illustrated by the fact that Chicago, the LA Lakers, Portland and the 76ers all won 20 or more games in which they lost the fourth quarter. The playoffs were similar to the regular season. The winning team won the first quarter almost 65% of the time and won the fourth quarter a whopping 79% of the time. The Detroit Pistons won the fourth quarter 15 times in their 20 playoff games and won 14 of those 15 games. The totals follow:

Regular Season (1107 games)

	1st Quarter		4th Quarter

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, New Jersey, won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on August 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However, his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

LAST 9 NBA CHAMPS HAD A JOHNSON ON ROSTER

NBA championships and the name Johnson have been a familiar combination since each of the last 9 NBA titlists had a player named Johnson on the team. In fact, 12 out of the last 13 have had a Johnson, the lone miss being the 1980-81 Boston kings. There was Vinnie Johnson for Detroit the last two years, Magic Johnson for the Lakers in 1987-88, 86-87, 84-85, 81-82 and 79-80. Dennis Johnson was a Boston Celtic in 85-86 and 83-84 and a Seattle Supersonic with John Johnson in 78-79. Reggie Johnson and Clemon Johnson played for the 82-83 Sixers and Charles Johnson for the 77-78 Washington Bullets. The only other Johnsons on title teams were Charles and George on the 74-75 Golden State team, Rich Johnson on the 68-69 Boston team and Arnie Johnson on the 50-51 Rochester Royals.
